As regards this it is not clear how the G.O. of 7th March 1911 referred to here has any bearing on his case. This an order intended to regulate the confirmation of probationary Asst. It does not apply to the confirmation of Asst. Comrs of officers temporarily promoted from the subordinate ranks to fill up vacancies among Asst. Comrs. It was not according to the principle of this G.O. that Mr. B. Ramamurthi was confirmed as Asst. Comr. Offg. Secretary to the Government of H. H. the Maharaja of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments.

SIR,

I have the honor to state that Mr.M.Lakshmana Shastry, my Office Assistant, has rendered 3 years approved service in the 5th Class of Assistant Commissioners, on the 4th January 1913 having been confirmed therein on the 5th January 1910. He fully deserves the promotion he is entitled to and I have much pleasure in recommending him for the same.

2. In this connection I beg to forward herewith his letter dated 4th January 1913 which shows how his case is a peculiarly hard one being practically superseded by more than 30 officers who are his juniors in service. It is a significant fact that for want of competent Inspectors for charge of the newly started Head Quarter Police Training School at Bangalore, in the year 1892, (there being only 2 Graduates in the Department then) which was a novel Institution then in Southern India, he had to be kept on in the Department with the distinct promise of advancement in the Department itself from 1893 to 1897 though he had before 1894 completed all the qualifying tests for Amildari and was in the grade of a Head Quarter Inspector on Rs. 100+15 which was also the grade of Amildar then. Nevertheless he was kept back solely in the interests of the Police Training School till December 1897 when he was eventually sent out as an Amildar. By this time 20 of his juniors had superseded him, for no fault of his, having been appointed Amildar before him.

3. Again in 1906 and subsequently when a large number of officers were made Assistant Commissioners, Mr.Lakshmana Shastry was senior to Mr. Mrityunjaya Iyer and others, yet he was superseded by 17 others though his name was also then in the list of officers selected for promotion to the grade of Assistant Commissioners.

4. His representation about the rule of the Probationery Assistant Commissioners being confirmed from the date of their passing the prescribed departmental examinations, and the need for making good the loss of a year in connection therewith, is also reasonable.

5. In conclusion after a close perusal of all circumstances, I feel Mr. Lakshmana Shastry's case is a unique one, with nearly 40 juniors going over, in a service of quarter of a century, all for no fault of his. His case is really a hard one and deserves favourable consideration at the hands of Government. He was made Sub-protem Assistant Commissioner V Class in October 1906 and he requires that this Sub-protem period may be taken into account for the grant of increment.

6. Mr. Lakshmana Shastry is seen from the reports of my predecessor to have done good work in the Chief Office and for the last one year I have been in this Office, I am fully satisfied with his work and strongly recommend his prayer for the favourable consideration of Government.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that, confirmed as 5th Class Assistant Commissioner on the 5th January 1910, I completed 3 years of service in that grade on the 4th instant. While requesting you to kindly recommend me to Government for promotion to the 4th Class, I beg to invite kind reference to my letter to the then Inspector General of Police dated the 12th August 1910, copy of which is enclosed for ready reference

x Encl. b
G.T. 25-10-5.
H.T.

2. It may be seen therefrom that mine is a peculiarly hard case and I venture to say without its parallel in as much as within my service of nearly 25 years, I have had no less than 30 supersessions by my juniors for no fault of mine. Most of these were due to the fact that for want of competent Inspectors for charge of the then, newly instituted Police Training School in Bangalore (there were only 2 graduate Inspectors and I was the senior), I was detained in the Police Training School for 5 years together with the promise of advancement in the Department itself, when in the usual course I might have gone out as an Amildar and earned my increments in the Revenue Department. At last in December 1897 when I was sent as an Amildar, I had to take my place below 20 Officers who were once my Juniors, but had become my Seniors by the fact that they were appointed Amildars earlier than myself.

3. Again in June 1906 about 6 Amildars who were then my Juniors as Amildars were mad to supersede me, for what reasons I cannot say.

4. Another point I beg to urge for your consideration is that there is a rule (vide G.P. No.× 5105-52/G.M. 25-10-3₂ dated 7-3-1911) that Probationary Assistant Commissioners are to be confirmed from the date of their passing the prescribed departmental examinations. The same concession was being shown to other Acting Assistant Commissioners also as in the case of Mr. B. Ramaswamiah who passed his last examination in May 1909 and was confirmed soon after, whereas althoug I had completed, all the prescribed examinations by December 1908, I was not confirmed till January 1910. Here again I lost a year.

5. In consideration of all the circumstances I beg you will urge my claims for the favourable consideration of Government to treat my 3 years' service as Sub-protem Assistant Commissioner, from October 1906 as

service counting for increment.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. Lakshmanaswamy

Asst. to Inspector General of Police.

Letter dated the 12th August 1910 from the Asst. to the Inspector General of Police in Mysore, to the Inspector General of Police in Mysore.

I beg to lay before you the following facts with a request that you will be so good as to take them into your kind consideration and recommend my case to Government for favourable orders.

2. I passed the B.A. Degree Examination from the Central College in January 1888 and in April I was appointed as a Taluk Police Inspector in which capacity I served for over four years and in 1892 when the Police Training School was newly opened I was selected for the charge of it and there I remained for about 5½ years.

3. In 1897 I was appointed Amildar, and as such I worked in four Taluks for nearly ten years, till I was appointed acting Asst. Commissioner in October 1906 in which grade I was confirmed in January 1910. Since I did more than half of my Amildari service, and two out of three years as acting Assistant Commissioner under you, you have had ample opportunities of judging my work (revenue, criminal and plague). So I will say nothing about it here.

4. I may mention here that I was the first graduate who entered the Police service at a time when that service was not popular with men of education. The then Inspector General of Police, the late Mr.L.Ricketts, held out high hopes to me. Naturally by good good work I fully expected to rise in the service. By 1893 i.e. in 5 years, I rose to the position of a Head Quarter Inspector on Rs.100 plus Rs.15, which appointment then ranked with Amildars and in which I had to remain for 5 years, till I was appointed an Amildar in 1897.

5. Having passed the Revenue and the Criminal branches of the Mysore Local Service examinations in 1890 and 1891 respectively, and in receipt of a salary of Rs.100 plus Rs.15 a month, by 1893, I was fully eligible for the post of an Amildar, and as a matter of fact between 1893 and 1897, there were several occasions on which I might have been sent out as an Amildar, but I was retained in the Police Department on promises of advancement in that Department, a consideration of the interests of the Police Training School which was then an unique institution ~~institution~~ in Southern India, also contributing to my retention in the Police Department. Between 1893 and 1897, many of my juniors in the Police and other Departments were appointed as Amildars. At last when I had to go as Amildar in 1897, I had to take a place below more than 20 Officers who were formerly my juniors.

6. In June 1906 and subsequently also 12 Amildars were appointed Assistant Commissioners of whom 6 were my juniors as Amildars and also in service. In point of examination qualifications also, I was in no way inferior to them. I passed my my Civil Part I in 1907 when I was acting Assistant Commissioner and prayed the Government to confirm me as Assistant Commissioner exempting me in consideration of my long service as Amildar from passing Civil Part II, as they had done in the case of may others. My prayer, however, was not granted.

7. In March 1908, the Government in their order No.G-5670-711/G.M.12-07-55 dated 30th March 1908 notified that none of the ther acting Assistant Commissioners, of whom I was one, would be confirmed, because they had not fully qualified themselves by passing all the tests and further declared that for the benefit of these acting Assitant Commissioners whc had only to pass the Registration test, they would hold a special examination in that subject in August 1908 so that they may qualify themselves for confirmation to take place in November 1908. Since I had to pass only Civil Part II, I memorialized Government to hold a special examination in that subject also as otherwise, I pointed out that some more of my Juniors will have an opportunity to pass over me. This request was also refused. So I had t go up for the usual Civil Part II in 1908 which I passed in December of the same year. Before these results were out 4 Assistant Commissionere were appointed. Of these again, 2 are my juniors.

8. After passing Civil Part II, I again requested to be confirmed as Assistant Commissioner, and as you are aware, I was promised that I would be confirmed soon, whic however, did not come into effect till January 1910, more than a year after passing the the examination.

9. Mr. Ramaswamiah who was also an acting Assistant Commissioner and whose confirmation depended on his passing the Civil examinations Parts I and II, passed those examinations in May 1909 and he was confirmed from 1st July 1909 within a month after his passing the examinations. If the examinations were a bar for confirmation as ordered by Government in Proceedings No.G-5670-711/G.M.12-07-55 dated the 30 March 1908 I ought to have been confirmed soon a after I passed Civil Part II in December 1908.

10. In their Proceedings No.G-2563-6/G.M.42-09-29 dated 8th November 1909, the Government were pleased to order, the tenur of my service as acting Assistant Commissioner from 20th October 1906, being treate as Sub-protem which continued without interruption till my confirmation as Assistant Commissier in January 1910. What I now request is that in view of the peculiar circumstances, the Government will be graciously pleased to order the period of my Sub-protem appointment to count for promotion to the 4th Grade of Assistant Commissioners.

11. Before concluding I beg to state that, Sir, that my object in bringing these facts to your notice in such detail, is not to complain, but to impress the same upon you and in doing so, if I have gone too far I beg to be pardoned.
